Dear Bill:

Pursuant to our meeting of 9 May and your followup letter of the 10th, we are giving prompt attention to servicing the requirements which you passed to us at the meeting. These will be serviced in accordance with the rough schedule suggested at the meeting.

I much appreciate the understanding you have shown of the highly sensitive elements involved in the matter of [redacted] and I am confident that we will be able to work out arrangements which will provide for mutually satisfactory handling of such cases. In this connection, I will welcome the ideas that you are forwarding.

25x

Faithfully yours,

Dear Pat:

As a result of our discussion yesterday, please disregard my letter to you of 7 May 1962 regarding immediate access to [redacted]

25

In view of the fact that Jim Angleton has accepted the DOD requirements for immediate processing, DIA will not anticipate direct access until around the middle of June. At that time, I will ask one of our CI types to get in touch with Jim in connection with follow-on interrogations concerning those DOD requirements that have not been satisfied at that point in time.

For your information, I have briefed General Fitch in general as to the importance of the Subject, and today will inform General Breitweiser and Admiral Lowrance of the basic reasons why this Subject has been handled as he has.

I appreciate very much having the problem explained to me, and both General Carroll and I are looking forward to our forthcoming meetings concerning the whole defector program.

In this connection, I am forwarding in the next few days a few ideas which, if implemented, I believe will materially benefit the program.

Best regards,

Bill

7 May 1962

Dear Pat:

I gathered from the statement of the Director at the USIB meeting on 2 May 1962 that he did not understand why DIA could not have immediate and direct access to [redacted]

25)

As you know, we are greatly concerned with the overall difficulty we are experiencing in the defector program, and in this case we suspect that the Subject has a great deal of information of security interest to the DOD.

In order that we might get together on the matter, Mrs. Dorothe K. Matlack (DIA Member, Interagency Defector Committee) has been appointed as the personal representative of the Director, Defense Intelligence Agency in meeting with representatives of your agency in finalizing arrangements for Defense direct access to [redacted] Mrs. Matlack will be assisted by Lieutenant Colonel Rea M. Pyle, Jr., and Major Ernest E. Livaditis.

25)

I would appreciate it if you would let me know who our DIA representative should contact in the Agency in order that the time and place of the initial meeting can be established.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM W. QUINN

Inasmuch as you are already involved in this, I took no action. However, I see no reason why DIA should not have a chance at [redacted] and should have had it long ago.

On the contrary, I think there are good + sufficient reasons why they should not even now have it - LBKirkpatrick
